Celise Combs

Celise,

I'm really confused on what to write in your yearbook because you so special AND VERY NICE AND I want to make this special. Celise when I first met you I said to myself "my gosh DANA your sister is really nice!" Even though we don't hang around with each other I think about you all the time. You really know how to treat a person. You so nice AND polite it's unbelievable I know we've gotten into a couple of fights AND I know I was wrong on every one AND if I could take them all back I sure in the hell would. I really wish you weren't so busy all the time because I would really like to spend some time with you or even one day. You really fun to be with AND your sisters are really terrific too. Thanks for helping me with some of my problems because your a big help. And something's bothering me, when you said to me that I hated you, there's no way I could. If I hated you, you would know. I really feel like shit ~~let~~ let you down so many times for calling AND I'm sorry. ^{ok} do you remember of those crazy you do AND of the crazy things like when you sit on clothes at the store AND say oh

this makes me look fat, oh this is gay looking AND then when you tease everybody it cracks me up. Good luck with Student Council I know you'll be great AND I wish you were the president when I graduate but a person can't have everything right. Also, good luck with Calendar girl, you're the prettiest AND sweetest girl up there. And good luck in singing you got a lot going for you. Well, I'll give someone a chance ~~but~~ take care of yourself AND be a good girl.
→ Thanks for everything. I mean it.
And just thanks for being my friend.

Call me sometime OK.

I Love You!

Superlatives, First year

Senior Superlatives was a new section this year. It was the first time in the history of Plantation High that the yearbook had carried through with this idea.

A ballot was distributed to members of the Senior Class. On this ballot were ten categories including Most Friendly, Most Popular, Best Looking, Most Talented, Most Likely to Succeed, Most Humorous, Most Spirited, Most Athletic, Best Personality, and Best Dressed.

One person was not allowed to win two categories but could be a runner up.

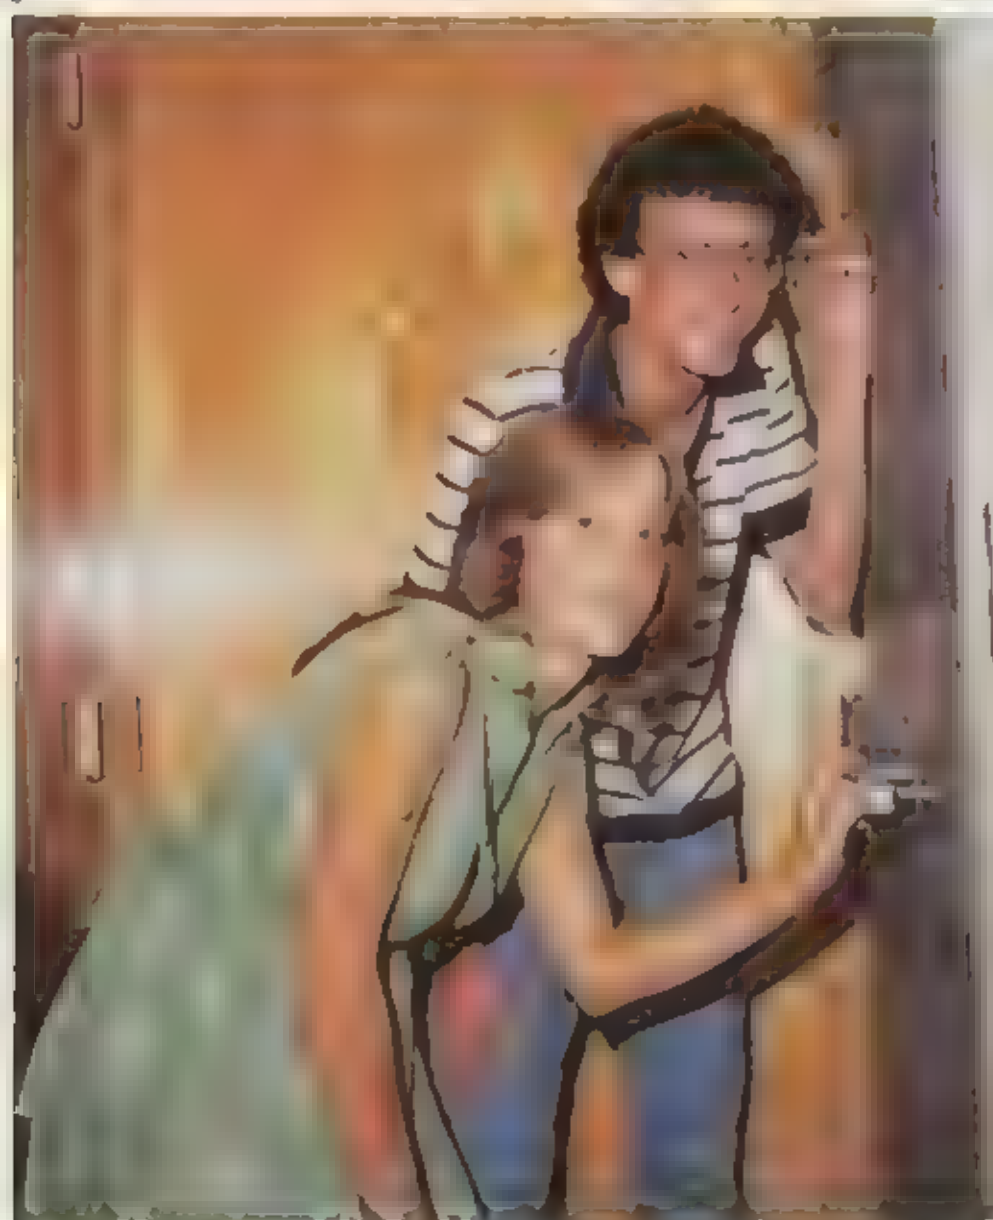

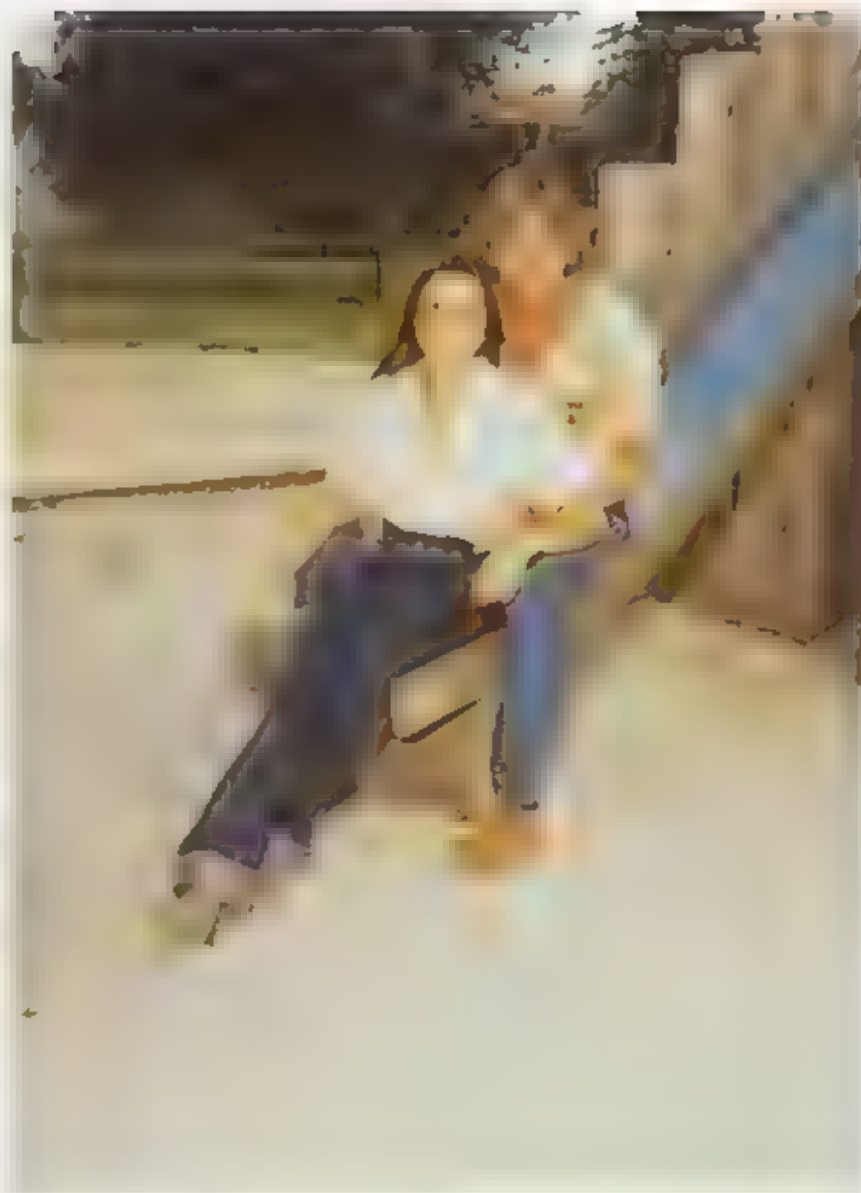

The following people represent the ten categories: Michelle Butoni and Jeff Geraci, Best Looking, Lynne Jackson and Terrance McCullough; Most Popular, Brenda Kowachik and Dave Stich; Most School-Spirited, Dawn Swilling and Terry Fein; Most Likely to Succeed, Natale King and Greg Gibb; Most Talented, Suzanne Wheeler and Joe Budano; Best Sense of Humor, Rene Baker and Scott Allen; Most Athletic, Carrie Blashke and Dave Polho; Friendliest, Cheryl Rocky and Paddy Singh; Best Dressed, and Stacey O'Hare and Brian Blanchett; Best Personality.

 B Runners up for the ten categories are as follows: Allyson Tatro and Craig Lawrence, Most Talented; Julie Canter and Dave Stich, Most Humorous; Mary Brown and Pete Schott, Most Spirited; Pam Bell and Paddy Singh, Most Likely to Succeed; Chris Frenzel and Dave Eaton, Friendliest; Nancy Burnett and Jeff Burford, Best Personality; Camela Bayer and Myron Johnson, Best Dressed; Alva Adams, Bill Siciliano, and Greg Wilson, Most Popular; Lynne Jackson, Bill Sciliano, and Hector Medina, Best Looking.
 C After being voted by the Senior Class in September of 1978 as the Best Looking, Michele Butoni and Jeff Geraci take time out during their hectic day to rest at a nearby park.
 D Even though they are involved in many extra curricular activities, Lynne Jackson and Terrence McCullough find time to slide into a wide circle of friends and being voted the most popular Senior boy and girl.
 E Dawn Swilling and Terry Fein hurriedly work to crack the office safe successfully after the Senior Class voted them as most Likely to Succeed.

Superlatives

A new honor

Each person who was picked for a spot on the Senior Superlative list was tried to be put in an atmosphere which would suit the category they were voted into

A musical scene was used for those who were voted by the Senior Class as the Most Talented. The Best Dressed represented their category well by being dressed in the latest fashion. Shown depicting a football game were the most Athletic and clowning around on a child's swing at Fifth Street Park were the most Humorous

The Boy and Girl chosen as having the Best Personalities were placed sitting casually on a tire swing. In a very ironic situation was the friendliest boy being held at gunpoint by the Friendliest Girl

The Most Popular Boy and Girl are shown sliding into a wide circle of friends and the Most Likely to Succeed are trying their luck at cracking a safe

Relaxing at a quiet park were the Best looking while the Most School Spirited are shown expressing themselves on the gym equipment

In case of a tie between runners up, both of the people received a runners up position. The winners pictures were taken and the runners up participated in a group picture

Spirit Week

A new activity

This year Spirit Week, a new activity was added to our Football Season. Spirit Week turned out very successful. It led the Vikings to their first victory of the season over NE. During the week there were various activities such as color Day, PHS Day, Show your spirit Day, and Silent Day. The Drill Team gave out Black buttons on show your spirit day. They were used to raffle off a football. There was also a pre game parade and pep rally. The student body showed great enthusiasm and spirit and participated in the activities.

Students decorated their cars and followed the football team, band, cheerleaders, drill team and the cheerleaders to the P.A.s field. The cheerleaders then lead the pep rally until the football players were set up. Then the crowd participated with the football team by helping them do their color cal.

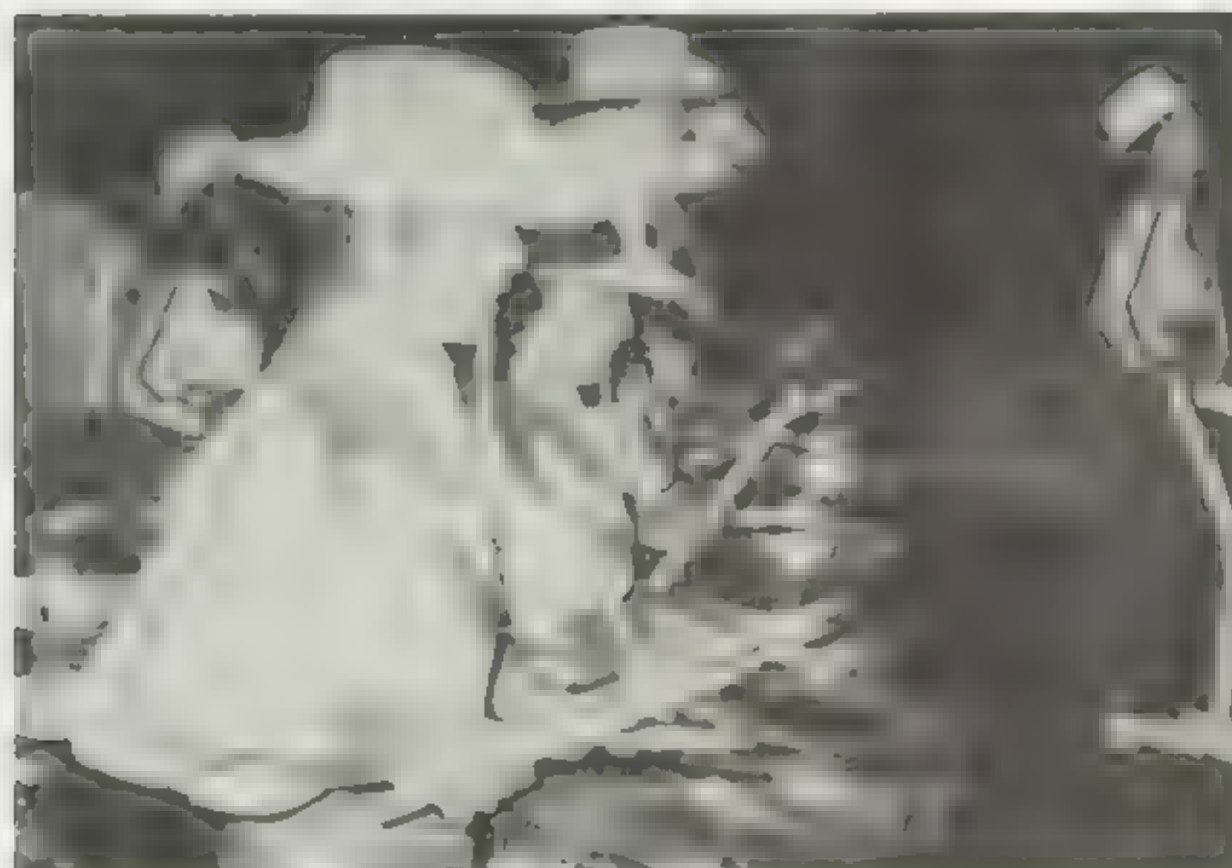

Spirit Week gave our football players a boost and helped keep the students spirit going.

Homecoming Dance Is stayin' alive

Last year Student Council decided to end the Homecoming dance as part of Homecoming week because of lack of participation. This year, the dance was back in. The dance was supposed to be held at the Sunrise Inn. Only 200 tickets was available and many more people were expected to come so it was changed to be held in the school cafeteria.

Juniorettes carried out the theme "Send in the clowns" by decorating the cafeteria with shimmering decorations and colorful clowns. Tables were set up for couples to sit at and a large part of the cafeteria was left for those who wished to dance to the band. Roses were put on the tables for floral arrangements.

In Memorium . . .

Last year the first principal of Plantation High School, Mr. Jack W. Chapman Sr. died. Mr. Chapman was 55 when he suffered a fatal collapse.

Mr. Chapman first became principal in 1965 with the birth of Plantation High School. After leaving Plantation High in 1969 he served as assistant football coach and head basketball coach in West Virginia. He then went on to become principal of Stranahan High School where he stayed until his death on November 1, 1978.

Mr. Chapman was a graduate from Marshall College, now Marshall University, after receiving his Bachelors degree in 1946. Mr. Chapman earned his Masters degree in 1948.

Before coming to Florida 23 years ago, Mr. Chapman was a captain in the United States Marine Corp and a Veteran of both World War Two and the Korean War.

Plantation High School students and faculty members had a small service in memory of Mr. Chapman on November 2, 1978 during third hour.

Through these pages the Yearbook Staff, Faculty and Student Body would like to express its appreciation to Mr. Chapman for his services at our school and preserve his memory as first principal at Plantation High School.

Mr. Jack W. Chapman

Here you will find pictures of friends you have made, teachers who have instructed you, and events of interest during this first year at Plantation High School.

Briefly I challenge each one of you to establish a lasting faith and a philosophy of life, to always be morally upright and trustworthy, physically clean and well groomed, and socially to love one another and follow the golden rule. Follow this advice and we shall continue to be proud of you.

"Reflections" 1965

. . . Philosophies and letters

The future is up to you. Too often people think they are the victims of circumstances—the playthings of fate. They are not! Each of them stands at the helm of his own ship, following his own course of decision.

A good mental attitude is even better than mental ability. Your attitude tells the world what you expect from life and you will receive exactly that—no more, no less.

Establish a goal for yourself in life with proper attitude and you will gravitate in the right direction to succeed in reaching your goal.

"Reflections" 1966

Dear Seniors

In the past few years, many forces have been at work to further the progress of your Alma Mater.

The greatest force in this progress has been yourselves. For you are not only a product of the school, you are a part of the formative process.

We appreciate your contribution to those around you, and to the total personality of Plantation High.

One of the foremost obligations of a school is to not only encourage its students to have a concern for others, but also to translate that concern into positive action.

Each of you is a reflection of every person you come in contact with. This exposure, kept constant, provides the fundamental basis for any lasting education.

I appeal to you, to your intelligence, and to your social conscience to become a positive force, to give a helping hand to those who seek to become first class citizens.

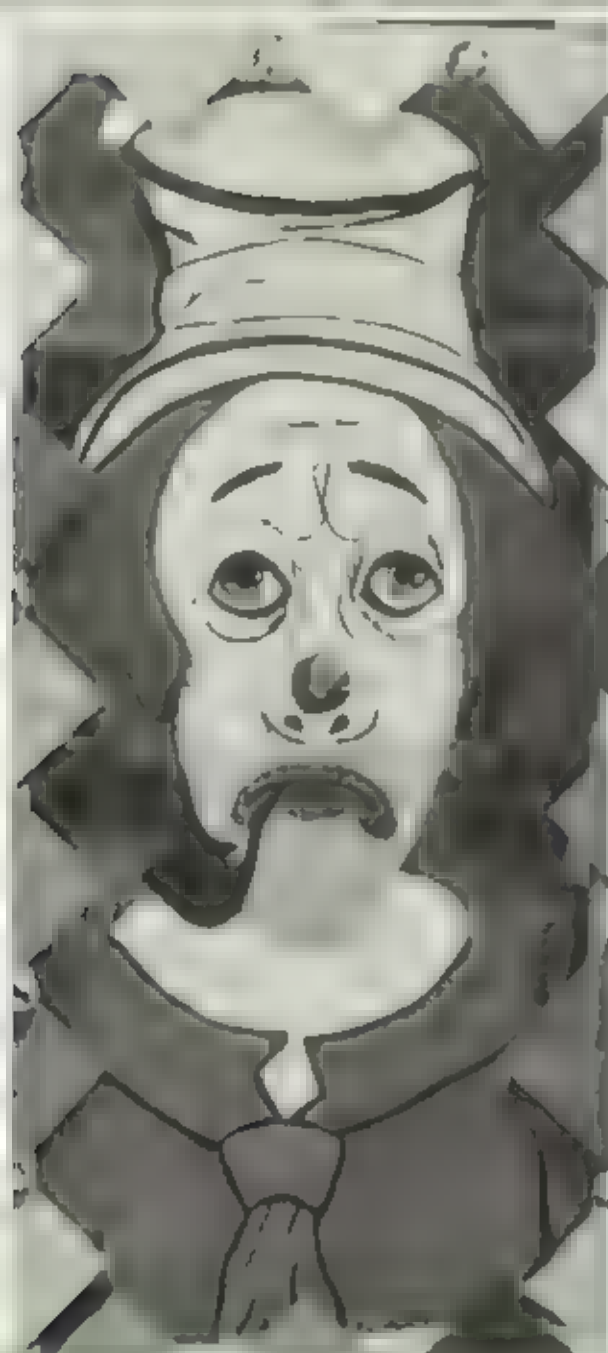

You have inherited, along with crisis, present and future, fine intellects, character, religious faith, and untold material blessings.

We have faith that you will use these well.

Sincerely,
Jack W. Chapman
Principal

Student Councils' Philosophy

Student Council is an effective educational instrument, if it is understood and utilized. In its beginning, the idea might have been to form a "mock government" but the functioning council has evolved into a unique agency for genuine learning far beyond basic concepts, of civics. The idea requires individual involvement-the living, central arena of the students world. Student council is a group of elected students in a school who meet together regularly to promote scholarship, promote leadership, promote human relations, and promoted cultural values

Student council is a learning opportunities for involved young people in their own schools to develop commitments to citizenship, scholarship, human relations and cultural values

Members helped Sell many trees

Student Council this year held their annual Christmas tree sale, Dec. 4 '20

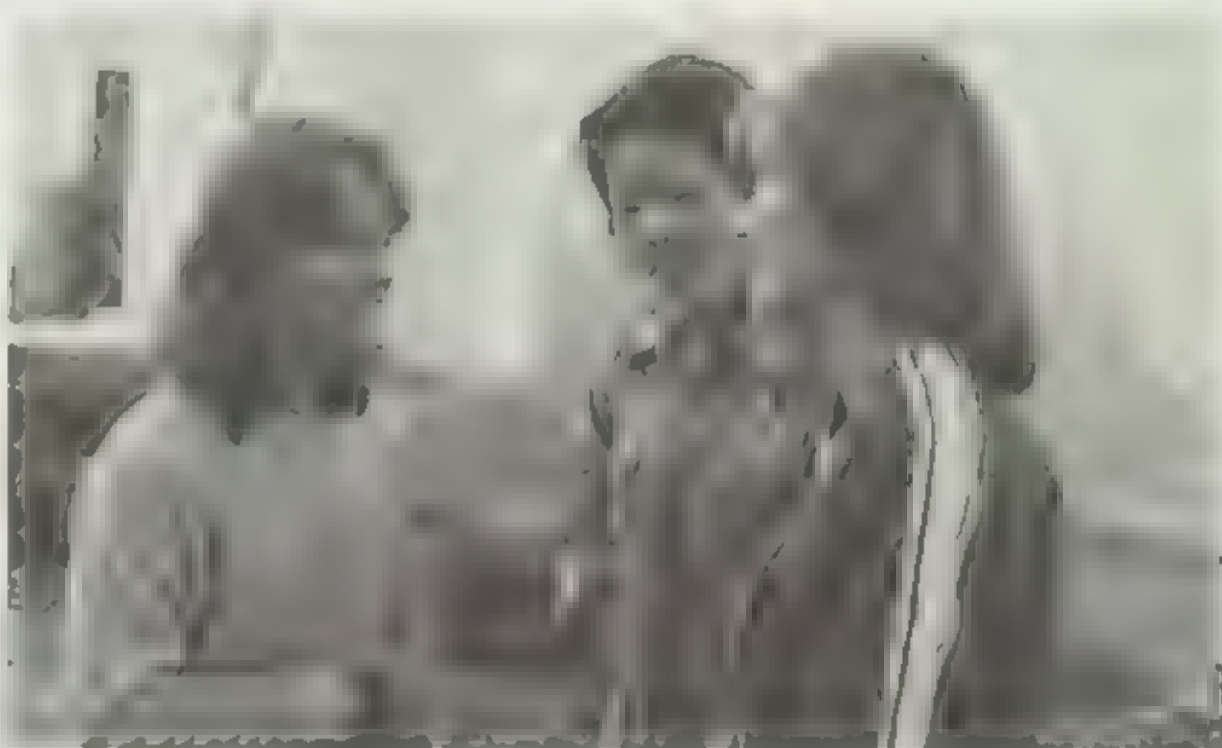

The trees were shipped in from Michigan on Dec. 3. Student Council workers set up the lot and unloaded the trees on that night and before school Student Council members worked during school and after school until 10:00 p.m. when the lot closed. Boys who worked all night to watch the trees were excused from school the next day.

At night, after the lot closed, the boys moved the trees, watered them, and made sure that no one broke into the lot.

Mr. Mike Roland, Student Council Advisor, chaperoned the sale, and took care of the money, along with Brenda Kowachik, student council president. The Christmas tree sale was their biggest money-making project of the year. Mr. Roland said Student Council made close to $8,000 profit from the sale.

Staff struggles to meet deadlines

This year's yearbook editor was Tammy DeCarlo. She was a member of the 1977-78 staff as well as the 1978-79 staff.

The yearbook staff met during 5th period every day. The class was an English credit for those who took it as seniors.

This year's members were expected to sell $250 worth of ads as part of their first nine weeks grade. They were also graded on their daily work, as well as getting their layouts in on time.

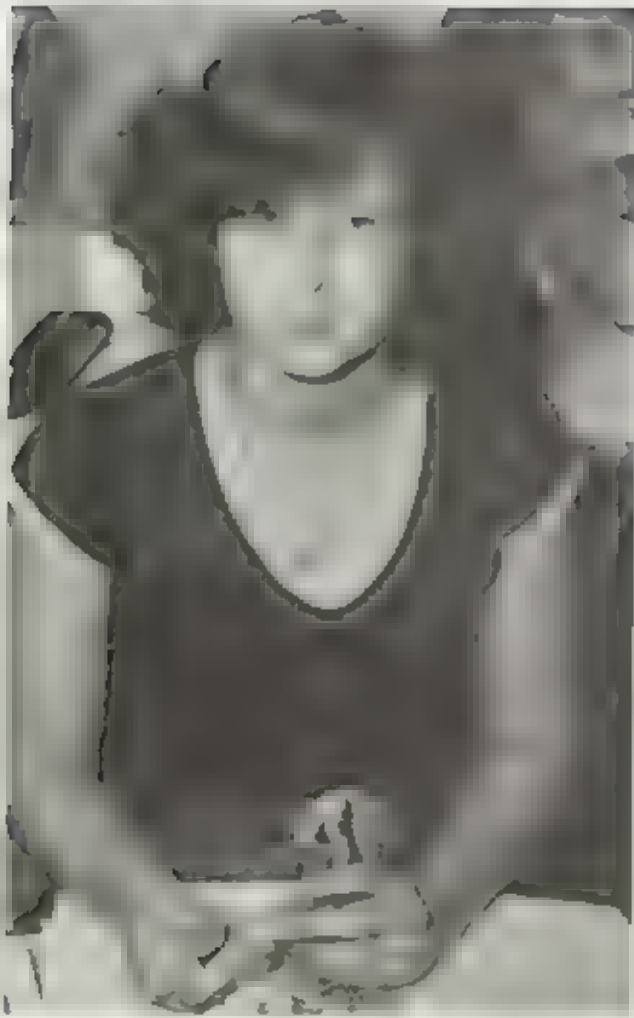

There were 5 deadlines throughout the year. The yearbook was divided up and each section was responsible for getting the pages in that they were assigned.

Two of them were in November, one was in December, one in January, and the final deadline where everything was due, was in February.

This year the Yearbook Staff received a new sponsor, Mr. Ira Kinder. He came to Plantation High School to serve as sponsor of the Yearbook and Newspaper staffs. He also taught Journalism I classes.

Mr. Kinder previously spent 5 years as English Department Chairman at Pirmasens American School in Pirmasens, Germany. He was the Drama Director at Dover High School in Dover, Delaware. He also taught in Brooklyn, N.Y. Mr. Kinder is also the author of two books of poems, short stories, and commentaries.

Sponsor brings Many new ideas

The 1978-79 Colonels Journal made a few changes this past year. They had a new sponsor, Mr. Ira Kinder, who recently moved here from Germany. New columns were added to the paper. "Sports Shorts" by Tom Strange was added. Also, were "Campus Candida" and "Sound Off" an editorial column written by staff members.

The editor of the Colonels Journal was Michele Alfano. Managing Editor was Stephanie Hughes. She was helped by Assistant Managing Editor, Betsy Swain. Karen Miller was the Business Manager.

The Colonels Journal staff sponsored the Ugly Man Contest, which was pictures taken of football players looking as ugly as possible and students voting for the ugliest one.

The Colonels Journal was issued every two weeks during the 1978-79 school year. The Christmas issue was made larger than regular issues. It was sold for ten cents an issue. It was 16 pages and was filled with tons of stories.

The Literary Magazine was also a new addition in the Journalism area this year. The editor of the magazine was Valerie Russell.

During the year, the Colonels Journal staff members tried to get students to write more letters to the editor.

A.F.S. sponsors two students.

This year the Plantation Chapter of the American Field Service (A.F.S.), sponsored two students from Turkey and Israel.

These students were: Orna Schtockhamer and Safiye Can. Orna was hosted by Josette Burns and her family, and Safiye was hosted by Michele Stefanelli and her family.

Orna was a Senior here at Plantation High. She was in the Photography Club, Student Council, and was involved with A.F.S. In January, Orna returned to Israel, for she turned eighteen and had to enlist in the Israeli army.

Safiye was a Senior during 1978-79 and she graduated with the Class of '79. Safiye was a member of the Golf Team, the Photography Club, Student Council and A.F.S. She gave a slide presentation at the Ethnic Dinner during Cultural Week, and her home country.

A.F.S. accepted applications from students that attend PHS, to host students the following year. To apply for a hosting position, the student must fill out many applications and go through a screening from A.F.S.

At various A.F.S. meetings, during the year both Safiye and Orna spoke and showed slides from their countries. They also spoke in Naples, Fla., where a new chapter was being formed. They also attended a weekend camping trip in Orlando, with their host siblings.

Three PHS students go abroad

The American Field Service (A.F.S.) sponsored three Plantation High School students who went abroad during the summer of '78. These three students were Lori Larsen, Mike Sloan, and Rick Wyatt.

Miss Larsen spent ten weeks in Gorlose, Denmark, with the Mortensen family. She left on June 26, 1978, and went to New York for orientation and culture shock. From there, she flew to Denmark and stayed there until August.

Mr. Wyatt traveled to Norway during the summer and he worked on a farm with his family and another exchange student.

Another student, Mike Sloan, traveled throughout Europe, and stayed with a host family in Belgium.

Many students from P.H.S. have applied to go abroad for the forthcoming summer. These students are: John Clement, Tracey Ackerman, Tammie Gray, Margaret Summers, and Mike Roehn.

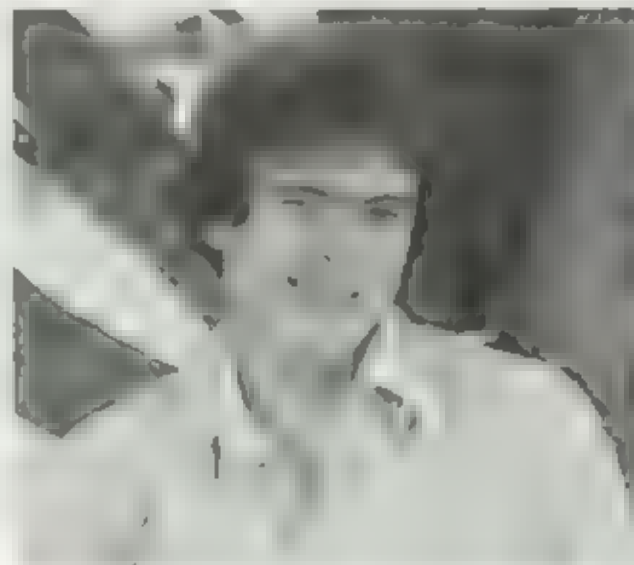

The president of A.F.S. was Lori Larsen, and the P.H.S. representative was Mrs. Maveck.

FBLA participated During the year

FBLA, Future Business Leaders of America, had many different chapters which were part of the vocational classes. Organizational activities were worked out during class time, and if necessary, after school.

FBLA's fund-raising and service projects for this year included selling candy and stuffed animals at the beginning of the year. At Christmas, FBLA sold giant coloring books and wrapping paper. FBLA also sold calendars.

FBLA held a Thanksgiving luncheon for faculty members. The members of FBLA entertained the faculty members while they ate.

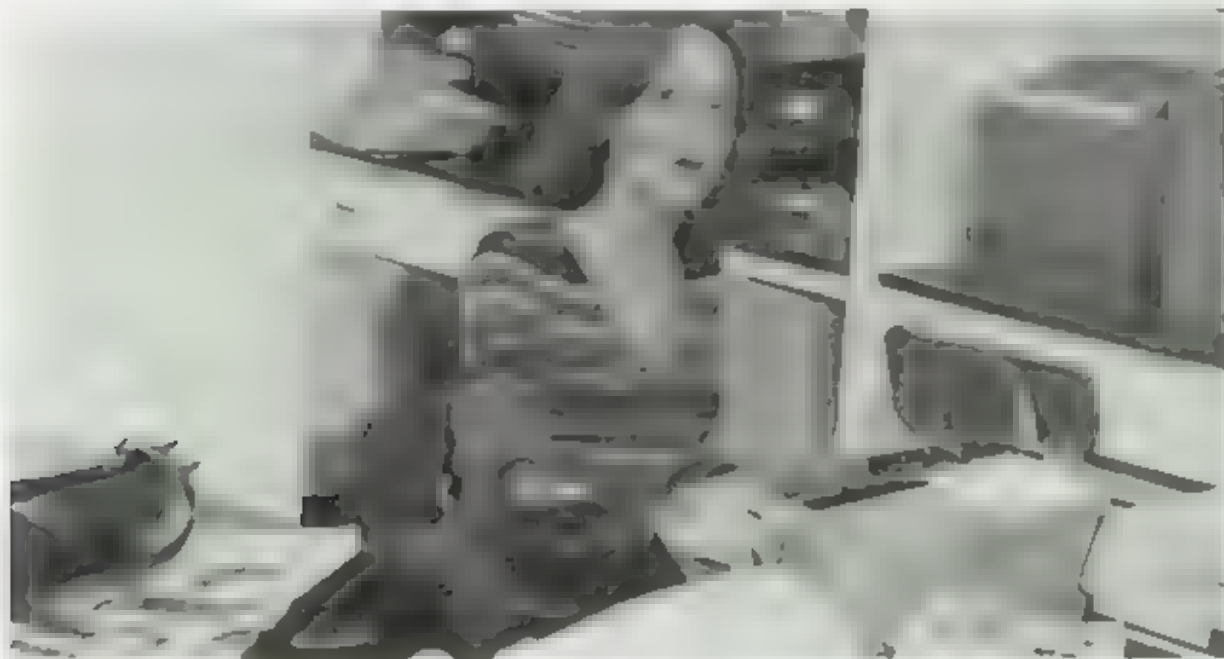

FBLA met during the 3rd and 4th hours during the day. There were a variety of things to do in the class. Along with learning about the business world, students learned about shorthand, and how to be a secretary.

DECA has rewarding 78-79 year

During the 1978-79 school year, DECA, Distributive Education Clubs of America, participated in many activities. They were part of a booster group, had picnics throughout the year and went on field trips.

They went to a Burdines display in downtown Ft. Lauderdale, and the Broward Mall. They had a pioneer day at Port Everglades where there was a free enterprise exhibit. They had a student speaking at the Civic group, which includes breakfast with the Chamber of Commerce. Throughout the year, the students were actively working with the Free Enterprise Center. They also held an Advertising Career Day. This was part of the Fashion portion of the class. It included the DECA students participation in freeze modeling.

During October, students attended office training conference in Tampa for three days.

DECA's fund raising projects for the year were, "Love Pops", bunnies and puppies, frompts, and cheese. They also sponsored a M.P.A. project called "One Step Forward."

CBE enhances future For PHS students

Young men and women of the Cooperative Business Education Program (CBE) sharpened their business skills daily in the CBE laboratory classroom. Afternoon hours were spent on entry-level jobs in business offices, earning wages and a school credit.

FRLA club activities, which are both social and service in nature enhance the leadership qualities of these young business persons. The culmination of all the activities of the CBE program was the annual employer-employee banquet.

The Cooperative Business Education program was coordinated by Mrs. Preston. She holds CBE classes.

Included in training are: typing, filing, telephone, business, records and introductory data processing to all business machines and calculator.

Band performs at many contests

This year the Plantation High School Marching Band participated in many competitions outside of performing during halftime of the Varsity football games.

The band went to St. Petersburg where they won the Tournament of Bands. Also they competed in a contest in Valdosta, Georgia. This year the Marching Colonels hosted the Gold Coast Marching Festival which was held at the Lockhart Stadium.

The band traveled to Tallahassee where they performed during halftime of a FSU game.

The Marching Colonels also participated in the Orange Bowl Parade, held on December 31, 1978.

This year's field commanders were Kim Parker and Craig Lawrence. The President of the entire band was Senior, Allvson Tatro.

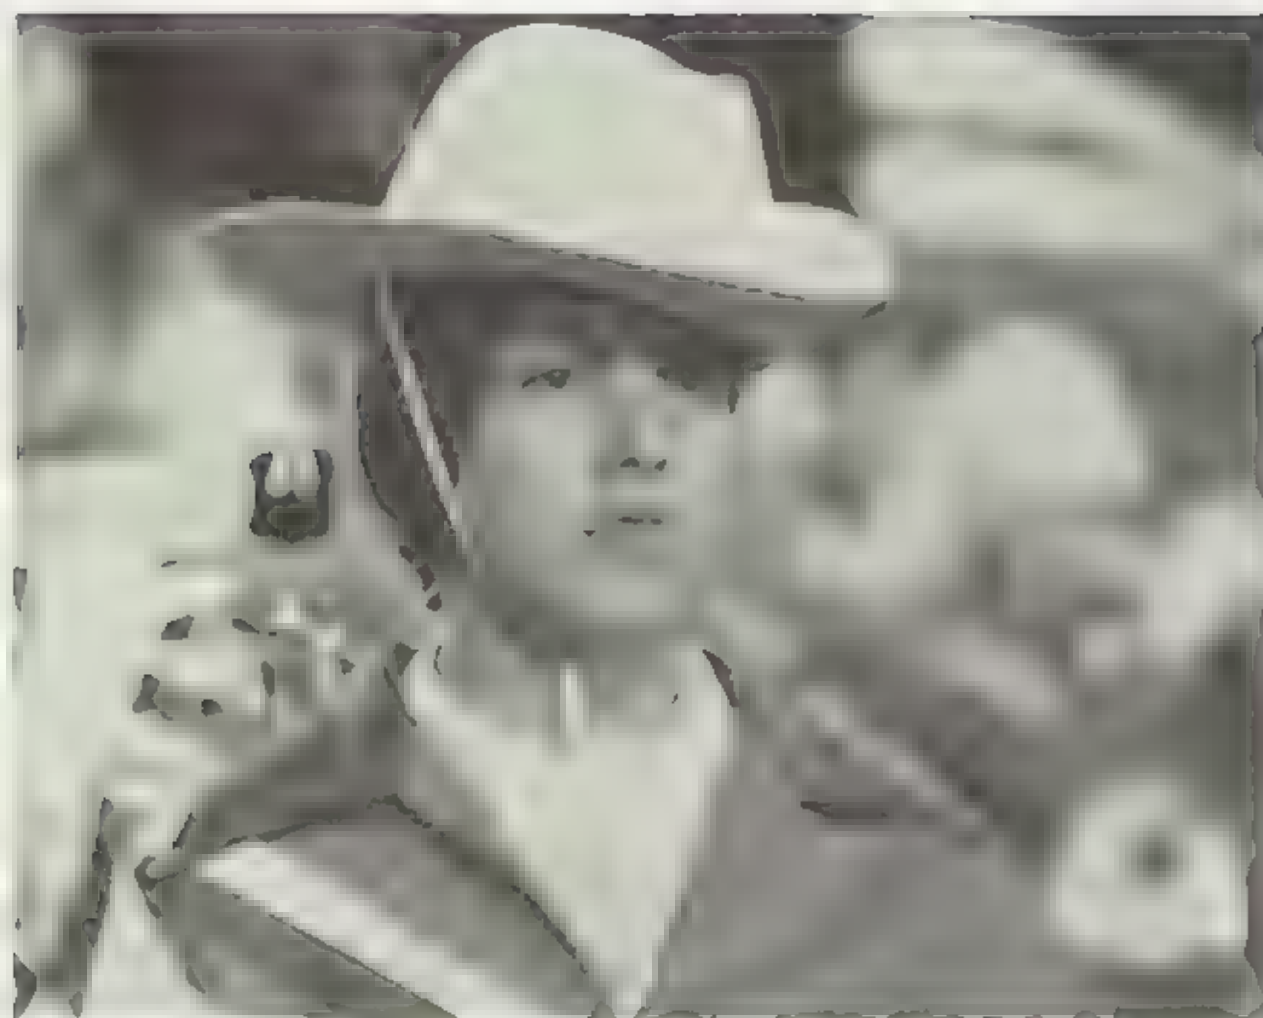

The Marching Colonels had two major duties this year. They performed with the band during halftime shows, and also in competitions.

This year during spirit week the Marching Colonels did something different. They played during the last ten minutes of both lunch hours to try and rouse up some school spirit for the games.

Colonels participate in contests

The Marching Colonels participated in many contests and won many awards during the year.

The band traveled to St. Petersburg to compete in the Florida Tournament of Bands. They won first place in six of the categories and the title of 'Grand Champion' for the contest.

A new contest, the Gold Coast Marching Festival, was hosted by the Colonels. This competition held at Lockhart Stadium was a first for the band.

The Marching Colonels traveled to Virginia Beach in May for the final competition of the year. After this, they began practicing for the next year, when they plan to participate in many contests. Practices were held after school and occasionally on weekends.

Honors won by the band included straight superiors at the Florida Band Association, and playing at halftime during a Florida State University football game.

Travelaires raise money for trips

PHS Travelaires, led by Mrs. Mac Namara, held many projects to raise money for uniforms and trips.

In April, the Advanced Chorus housed the Junior Singers from Bremen, Germany. The choir stayed in Plantation in early April.

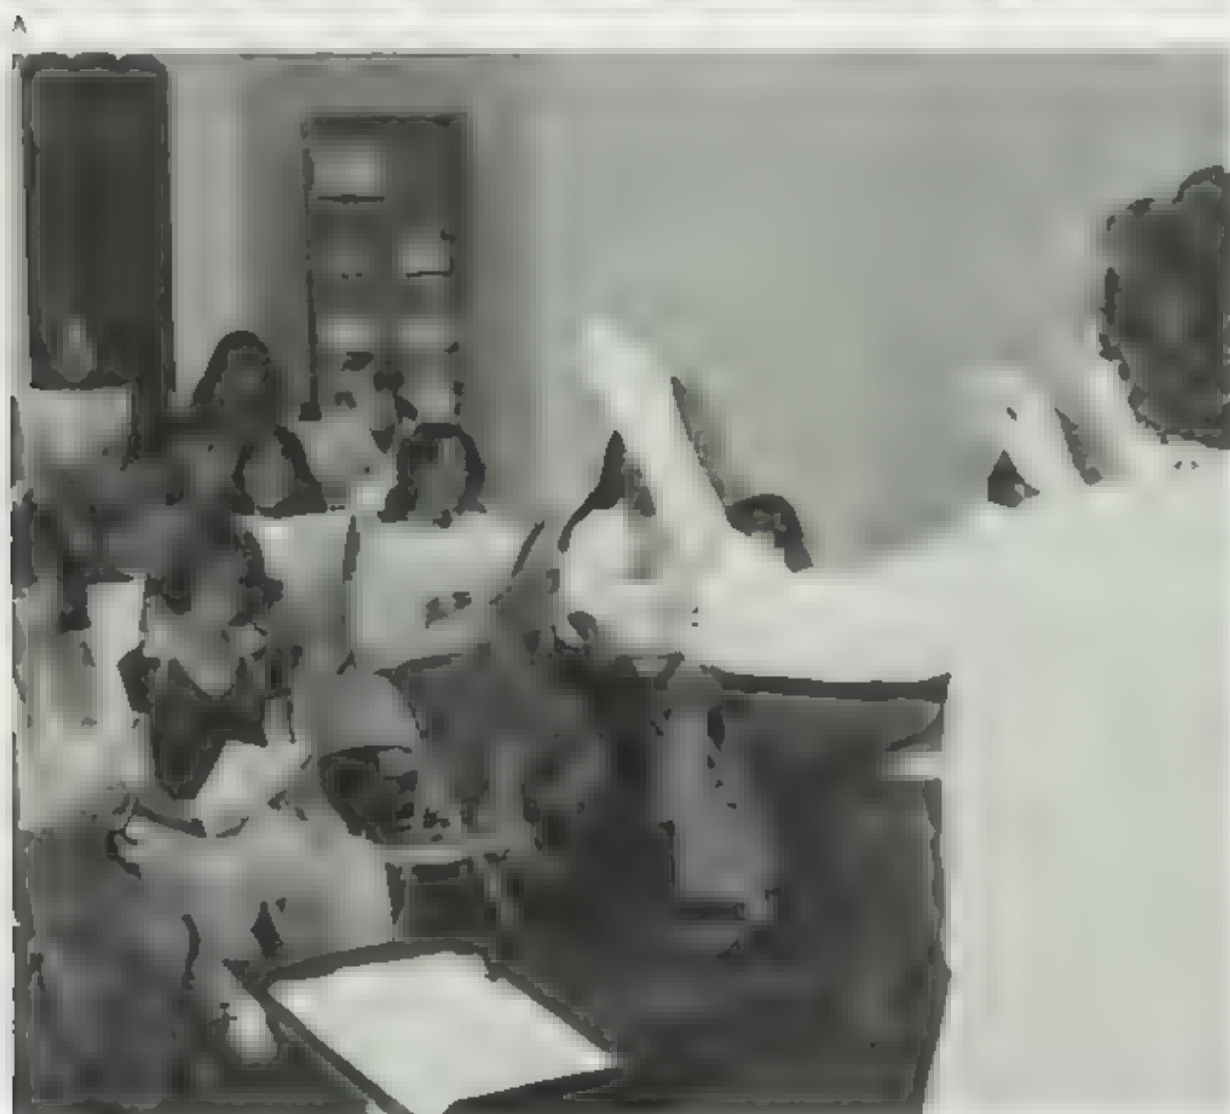

Travelaires sold M&M's, popcorn, poinsettias, and they also held a pancake breakfast. The biggest money-making project was the poinsettias sale during the holiday season. They sold the plants on the lot with the Christmas trees.

In February, a group of students went to Hialeah Miami Lakes High School to compete in the District Solo ensemble festival. There, they entered categories such as classical solos, duets, and ensembles. The students that received superior ratings at districts, went on to compete in the state competition.

Also during the year, four Travelaires members went to the All state Chorus in Tampa. These students included Steve Estrella, Lori Ortigas, Christine Shank, and Ted Wharton. To be chosen, these students took a music theory test, and they had to be chosen according to voice parts.

During the year, the Travelaires parents held meetings on the second Monday of every month. These meetings helped to decide and plan money-making projects.

JCL places third in contest

The Plantation Junior Classical League participated in the district latin forum in February. They placed third in this competition, and went to state competition in April, in Orlando, Fla

In January, JCL had an inauguration ceremony, at Plantation High School. Afterward they went to the Ground Round Restaurant and held their annual banquet. Latin classes, taught by Mrs Franz, were held second and seventh periods. Anyone in a Latin class may join JCL

Imaginary club member, Buddy Morgan will pay for someone to travel to the state forum. Whoever achieves the highest score on predetermined test will be chosen by Buddy, to go free of expense

The officers for JCL during the year were, Matt Bertelsen, president, John Azzizzi secretary, James Driver treasurer

Junior Civitans Do many PHS projects

This year's Junior Civitan officers were Stephanie Hughes, president; Lisa Kuchenreuther, vice president; Carol Crump, secretary; Linda Bevilacqua, treasurer; Civitans had no sergeant at arms.

Junior Civitan's money making projects were: they sold pennants for Homecoming that read "Homecoming '79", and they sold Valentines Day corsages.

Service projects that Junior Civitans worked on this year were: they went Trick or-Treating for UNICEF, they built a nature trail at Markham Park Zoo, they worked a booth at the Colonel's Club Fair, they collected canned goods at Christmastime for Red Cross, and they made banners for Spirit Week.

During Homecoming week Junior Civitans decorated a hall and they also decorated a car for the Homecoming parade through Plantation.

Sorota involved In many projects

This year's Sorota officers were: Lori Larsen, president; Kim McGeehee, vice-president; Lisa Guinup, treasurer; Carrie Blaschke, secretary; Valerie Russell, historian; ZoEllen Moore, sergeant-at-arms

This year's service project chairman was Tracey Ackerman. Some of the service projects that Sorota participated in were: collecting tennis balls for underprivileged children, helped at Christmas tree sale, made Valentine cards for teachers, made goodies for administration, painted concession stand and sponsored Calendar Girl

Sorota actively participated in all Homecoming events. They received first place for float, second place for skit, and also made a hall. These all fell under the category of "Send in the Clowns" which was this year's Homecoming theme

Sinawiks active During the year

Sinawiks participated in many service projects throughout the year

During Homecoming they participated in Ski Night in which they received honorable mention, and float in which they tied for second place.

Throughout the year they sponsored a booth at the Colonel's Club Fair, served refreshments at the basketball tournament in February, washed desks, went on the March of Dimes Walk A Thon, and had a brownie party for Christmas, and Easter. They also sponsored a foreign foster child whose name is Maria Delourades.

This years officers were: Kathy Dwyer, President, Rhonda Gerig, Vice-President, Kim Messmore, Secretary, Susan Warenda, Treasurer, Karen Zizmer, Chaplain, Gwen Leibstone, Sergeant of Arms, and Kerry Maher, photographer. They met every other Monday night for their meetings.

Junioresses

Junioresses, a new club to the school this year, was sponsored by Mrs. Chisholm, and Mrs. Hope. This new club was formed because there was not enough room in the other clubs for all the girls.

Junioresses money-making and service projects were: selling corsages and t-shirts. They sponsored a sport for the handi-capped children, and Easter Egg Hunt for kids and raised money for the Humane Society. They also collected food for the poor people.

This year's officers were: Anita Carter Pres., Adrienne Ferrara, Vice Pres., Kim Ferrara, Sec., Jodi Keoski, corresponding sec., Debbie Maloney, Treasurer, Karen Cizinski, Chaplin, Kim Parker, Parliamentarian, and Lisa Diaz served as the Historian.

Interact did many Service projects

Interact worked in various service projects throughout the year

At the beginning of the year they participated in a Wheel-A-Thon for handicapped people. The Interact members got people to sponsor them for so many cents a mile and the money was donated to the handicapped. It was held at Holiday Park and they rode their bikes for 10 miles

They helped Anchor during homecoming with their float which came in a tie for second place with Sinawiks

Also during the final part of the year Interact sponsored the annual Powder Puff game. This is when the Senior girls take on the Junior girls for a night of fun and frolic as they girls play flag football

Interact met every other Monday night at 7:30 in room 301. The other Monday nights were taken up for Student Council meetings

Also Interact planted some trees. They planted ten black olive trees on January 22 as a service project

During second semester they didn't recruit any new members because they already had their limit of 45 members

New service club Is added to PHS

This year there was a new boys club added. The name is Exchange and it was added as a result of overcrowded clubs. Now instead of two boys clubs, there are three. The limit to any service club is 45 members.

During this year Exchange sponsored a Treasure Hunt. The members of the club hid two Billy Joel tickets around the campus. Students had to search around and try to find them. When the tickets were found the student who found them got to keep the tickets and attend the concert.

The Exchange club met every other Monday night in room 301. The other Monday nights were occupied by the Student Council meetings.

Colonels lose Homecoming, 14-3

The Plantation Colonels Varsity Football team completed their season 3-8 with a 3-14 loss to the South Plantation Paladins.

A 42 yard pass from Quarterback Lee Colan to running back, Martin Stoudenmire put the Colonels on the Paladins 10 yard line. The drive stalled leaving it up to Brian Bradley to put the Colonels on the score board with a 27 yard field goal.

The Colonels and Paladins have one of the most outstanding rivalries in the county. The rivals have met six times, leaving the Colonels with one victory in 1973.

Students Help season

The Varsity Football team began with a slow start this season by losing their first four games. By sheer determination and mostly school support, the Colonels captured their first victory, defeating the Northeast Hurricanes 28-10.

The Colonels scored their second victory by conquering the Coconut Creek Cougars, 14-7.

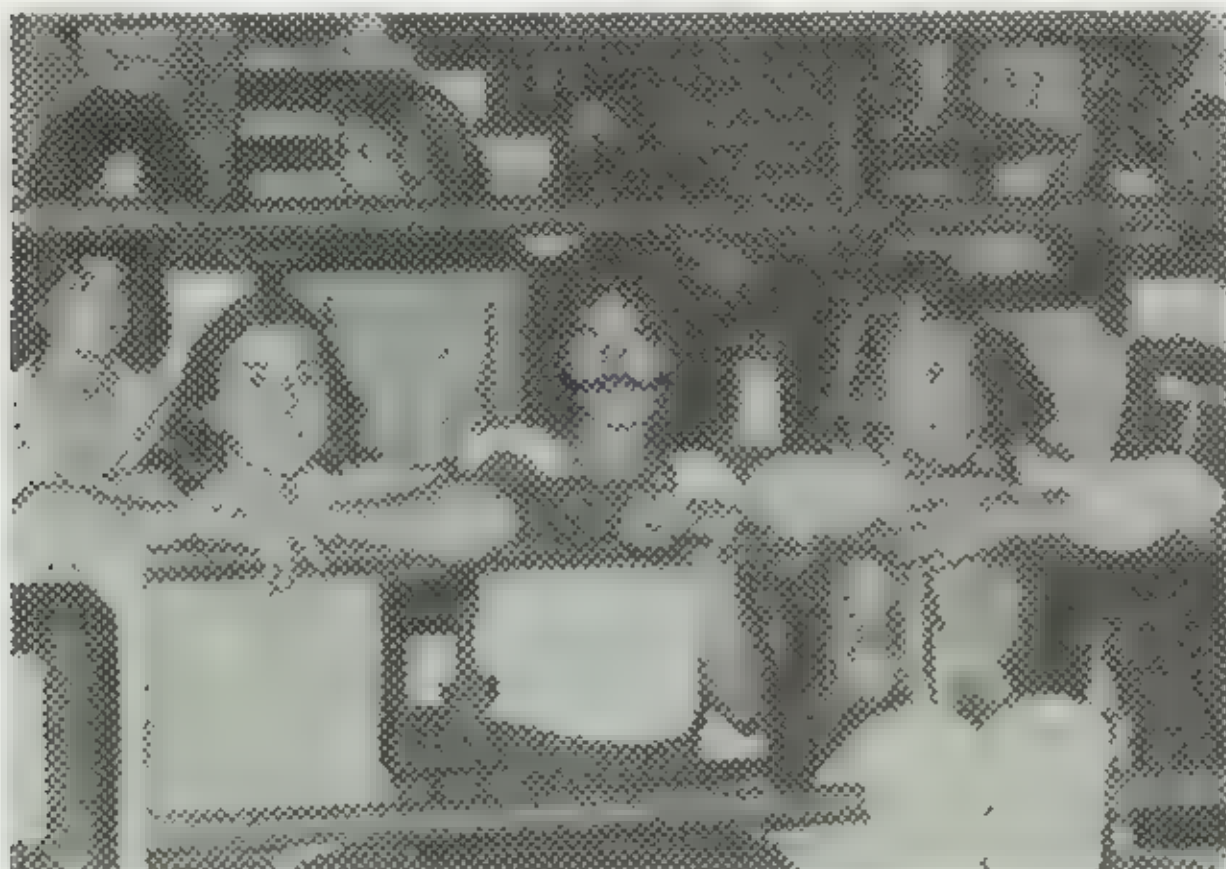

The two game winning streak ended abruptly when the Coral Springs Colts beat the Colonels, 7-0, at their home field. Despite the Colonels come back attempt, which failed when there was a fumble on the four yard line.

Colonels finish season even

Led by head Coach Andy Cox and Assistant Coach Dan Bowles, Bob Deming and Dave Hepler, the Junior Varsity Colonels ended their season with four wins and four losses.

The "Baby Colonels" took on the Northeast Hurricanes in the first away game of the season. The Colonels left with a victory of 6-0.

The Junior Varsity Colonels then went on to meet Dillard at Dillard High School. It was a close, tough game and the final score ended at 6-8.

The "Baby Colonels" first home game was played against Coral Springs High School. The Junior Varsity team put up a good fight but lost with defeat of 16-34.

The fourth game into the season was against Ely High School. The JV Colonels left with a shut out score of 8 points.

Then they went against Pompano and pulled off their third victory of the year with a score of 22-12. The Flying L's took an early lead against the JV Colonels in the first half, with a score of 14-0. The game ended with a loss for the Colonels of 37-14.

The JV Colonels ended their season losing to Boyd Anderson and making their final win against Coconut Creek, 34-12.

Angels lend Moral support

In the 1977-78 school year, the new Guardian Angel program was introduced to Plantation High School. Student Council brought back the idea from the state workshop

The group was organized by Mr. Michael Roland for the second consecutive year

The purpose of Guardian Angels is to boost the moral of the Varsity Football team

The senior and junior girls participating were assigned to a particular player they were to support. The girls baked cookies and cakes and made signs for the players to wear around their necks

Guardian Angels worked in mysterious ways because the football players did not know who their angel was until the end of the season

The Guardian Angels introduced themselves to their football players at the final practice before the Plantation vs. South Plantation game, which was the PHS Homecoming

Cheerleaders help Create enthusiasm

This year there were two cheerleading squads during the 1978-79 football season. The varsity team consisted of eight junior and senior girls and the junior varsity squad included eight sophomores.

The cheerleaders played an important part in promoting school spirit. They sold Colonel buttons and spirit links before each game. The links enabled the classes to participate in creating school spirit.

In addition to giving the football players moral support, the girls decorated the locker room, made spirit banners and held several pep rallies.

Sponsor for both squads this year was Mrs. Carol Roland who was a big help to the girls and gave them much encouragement.

Colonels complete winning season

Under the direction of Coach Payton, the 1978-79 Colonels Volleyball team compiled a season record of 28-7. The team won sectionals and regionals as well as districts. In addition, the Colonels traveled to Tampa, where they placed runner-up in state competition. The varsity team consisted of four senior girls: Chris Rapillo, Dawn Swilling, Kelly Hansen, and Leslie Slight, and seven Junior girls: Deidre Lash, Heidi Hanes, Jan Chinn, Cheryl Elliot, Robyn Keeler, Janice Burke, Jenny Davis and one sophomore, Lori Fuller. Practices were held everyday after school, and the girls put in hard work and long hours, from 3:00-5:30.

Although JV games were held prior to the Varsity matches, the two teams practiced together. The JV team consisted of 12 players including: Rita Taddia, Janis Schober, Rene Baker, Debbie Earich, Liz Bridges, Shair Zaborski, Sheri Koren, Marie Katris, Marie Delenios, Kari Hansen, Gina Martini and Nancy Fuhr.

Among the many accomplishments, the Varsity team had several outstanding players who received special credit from outside of the school.

Captain of the Colonels, Cheryl Elliot, was chosen by the Miami Herald for their first team. This team consisted of the top players in Broward County. Senior, Dawn Swilling was also chosen for the Herald's second team, along with Sophomore, Lori Fuller who received honorable mention.

According to Mrs. Payton, all the Colonel Volleyball players were very good, and she admitted that it took a lot of hard work and cooperation from each player to get them where they were. In the state tournament against Robinson High, Janice Burke and Robyn Keeler were outstanding players.

FACULTY JUMP SECTION

As students we are exposed to "superiors" who lecture, illustrate and demonstrate principles, encourage, scold and determine a large part of the direction of our lives in these four years. These members of the faculty and administration are individuals with personalities. As different as any other large population, but, unfortunately, as our position as students, we are exposed to them only in their limited roles.

Reflections '79 chose to demonstrate that our teachers have personalities too, which are full and often different from what we might expect. The problem, of course, was to devise a method to encourage natural expression of character rather than role playing.

Phillip Halsman, a famous photographer, developed an idea to capture the true essence of a personality. After he had taken a portrait he would ask the subject for another photograph— a photo of them jumping in the air. This was so successful that he published a book called The Jump Book.

The Reflections staff felt this would be a helpful idea, we already know our teachers are distinguished and knowledgable— we now know they are also human. The feet leave the ground and inner child-like excitement was revealed.

When we undertook this section we were told we would never get Mr. or Mrs. X to go along with the idea, but in almost every occasion Mr. or Mrs. X cooperated to an extent beyond belief.

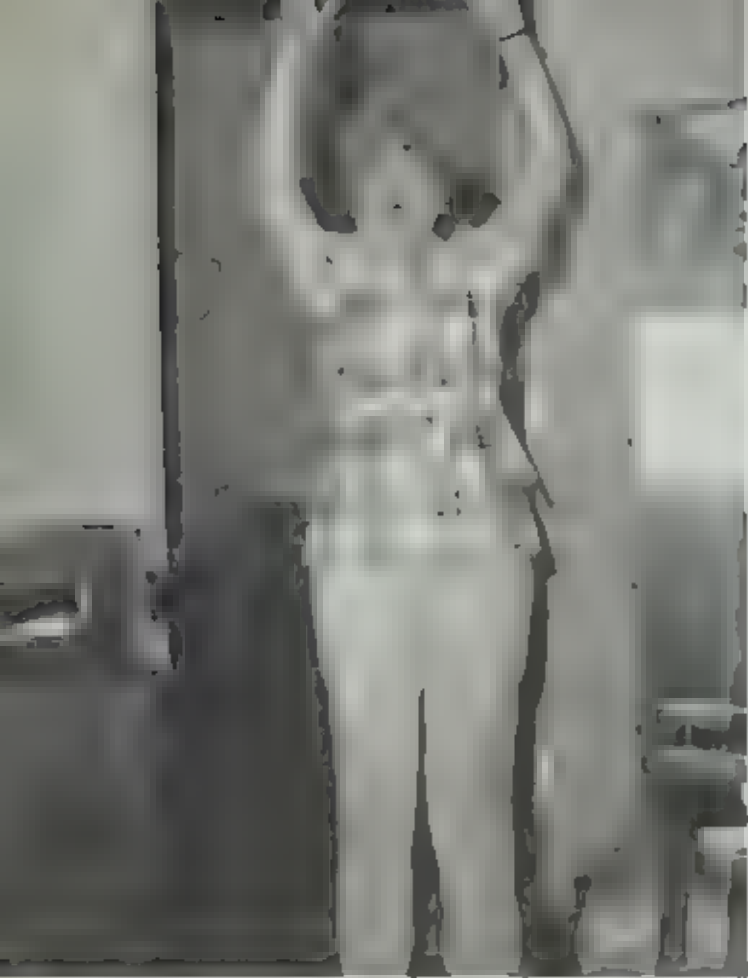

Jumpology: This is a term coined by Phillip Halsman to describe the analysis of a persons personality by the way they jump. It cannot be totally revealing, it can indicate some surprising tendencies. For example, a jump can be "liberal" or "conservative", warm or aggressive, inhibited or exuberant. Analysis for it is the very nature of a picture to be worth a thousand words.

We have provided the photographs and we feel they should speak for themselves.

However the final judgment is left to you . . .

A special thanks

We, Teri Turiano and Valorie Valentine, Faculty Editors along with Tammy DeCarlo, Editor in chief, would like to join the "Reflections '79" Staff in personally thanking those members of the faculty, staff and administration of Plantation High School who graciously agreed to assist us with the special faculty jump section

Instead of the traditional faculty pictures, we decided upon this special section not only to add a new dimension to the yearbook, but to show different concepts and views of those we see on a day to day basis.

Once again it proves that these people care not only in making school a place to learn and mature, but a place that students will look back upon with a sense of pride. Good memories were made here.

Thank you for your cooperation,
Tammy DeCarlo

Seniors offered two new courses

The English Department was headed by Mrs Emma Lou Garner, during the 1978-79 school year.

The courses offered for English this year were English 1,2,3,4, and advanced classes for each grade. New courses that were added this year were communications and English Language for 12th graders.

There were two new teachers added to the English Department this year. They were Ms Debbie Carl, who taught English 2, and Mr. Ira Kinder, who taught Journalism. Mr. Kinder was also the advisor for the newspaper and yearbook classes.

The Functional Literacy Program was sponsored by Mrs. Carol Roland. The purpose of this program was to prepare 11th graders for the Functional Literacy Test that was taken in October.

Language classes Go many places

Spanish, French, German and Latin were offered this year through the Foreign Language Department, headed by Mrs. Emma Lou Garner.

The enrollment was kept up, but Spanish classes had more students than the rest of the foreign language classes. Mrs. Monica Mavec taught all of the Spanish two classes this year. She also taught a Spanish four class.

Two new teachers were added to the foreign language department during the year. Mrs. Karen Hope, who taught Spanish one classes and Mrs. Sandra Ness, who taught Spanish one and three classes.

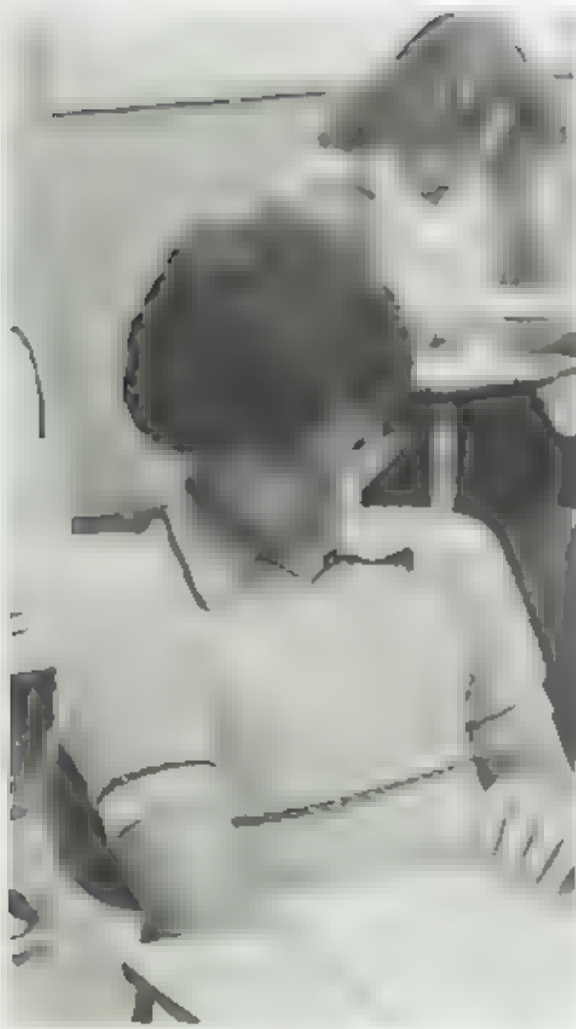

This year, foreign language classes put together lunches, brunches, and went to restaurants where food was served that was from their class nationality. They attended movies, acted out skits, and spoke dialogs.

Social Studies Has many classes

The Social Studies department was headed by Mr. Ron Larder.

The Social Studies courses that were offered were: Geography, American History, Advanced American History, Ethnic Study, Psychology, Leadership, and General American History.

One thing different during the year was the department had many more speakers to talk to the students. These included, Abe Gerstenhaber, hypnotist, who got unusual results, and William Lehman, state representative from the ninety-seventh district.

Mr. Larder would like to see a full time Humanities program with some art and literature added to the department for the following years.

Approximately fifty percent of the seniors took Psychology during 1978-79. About eighty five percent of the students that took geography, were freshmen.

Exclusive Senior Classes Offered

Psychology is one of the few classes offered exclusively to Seniors. Social Studies Department head, Mr. Ron Larder, taught the course along with Mr. Dietrich.

During the course of the year, the classes explore such areas as transcendental meditation (T.M.), study of ego status and other aspects of Psychology which may be beneficial in future life.

After taking the required year of American History as a Junior, Seniors may take Advanced American History to further explore the history of our country. College credit may be obtained by taking the C.L.E.P. test during the spring. The books used in the class are How to Prepare for College Board Achievement Tests, by Midgley, and History of a Free People, by Bragdon, McCutchen and Cole. There is also a corresponding workbook by the same name. This course is taught by Mr.

Mike Roland

Household management is one of the courses offered to Seniors in Family Living. In this course students have open discussions where Seniors may obtain advice.

During the second semester, financial obligations such as life and car insurance, budgeting and family planning are explained.

Business communications is another class offered only to Seniors and is taught by Mrs. Balog and Mrs. Barker. This class is a college preparatory class of English.

Areas covered are stenography, grammar, vocabulary and how to write a term paper. This class allows seniors to explore the business world while receiving an English credit. To take this class, the student is required to have had previous students find occupations and provide employment opportunity in various business fields.

Senior class officers get involved!

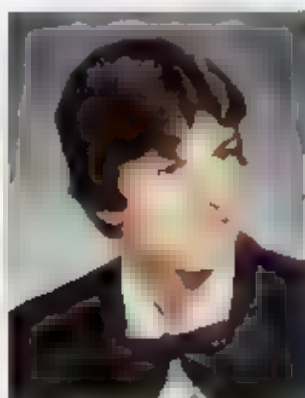

Senior class officers demonstrated their school spirit by becoming more involved in other school activities as well as serving the Senior class.

Terry McCullough, who was elected president of the Senior class last spring, played defensive back for the Varsity football team.

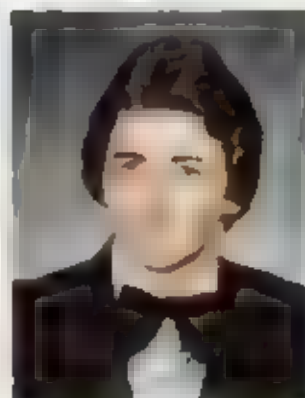

Vice-President Natalie King was involved in the Travelers ensemble group and Student Council. She was also a member of the service club Sorota. Natalie was selected as Girl of the Month for November and the "Most Talented Senior".

Beverly Moncreif, secretary, was a member of the girls softball team and FBLA. She was also in the service club Sorota, and active in Student Council. Beverly was on the National Safety Council last year and was chosen for representation in the annual Who's Who in American High Schools.

Treasurer Brenda Wright was involved in Sorota and Student Council as well. She was chosen to be Girl of the Month for May after being nominated by the Senior class. Brenda was included in Who's Who in American High Schools last year.

Senior P.E. Outstanding Success

Adrienne Ferrara

Offered for the first time in 1973, the Senior P.E. program has been an outstanding success with students, as well as an exceptional learning experience. The program is nationally recognized, and Plantation High School is the only school to offer such a class.

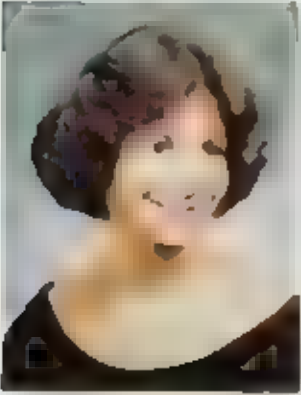

Mr. Thompson and Ms. Penney, co-designers of the program, have two classes this year. Total enrollment in the class varies between 120 and 160 students.

Upon signing up for the class, Seniors must realize that a special uniform is required: navy blue gym shorts and a light blue coordinating top.

Some events that students were able to participate in this year included bowling and rollerskating. Occasional special trips like the deep sea fishing expedition held on October 26 provided students with the opportunity to explore unusual sports that they might not be exposed to otherwise.

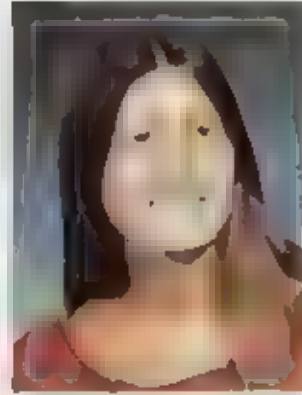

Seniors must have two previous P.E. credits to be eligible for the course.

Seniors have AFS Experience

The American Field Service (AFS) gives students from the United States and foreign countries the chance to travel abroad. Students, sent from various countries around the world, live with host families for the entire year in most cases.

This year two exchange students attended Plantation High School. Orna Shitokhamer from Israel who lived with Josette Burns, a student from Plantation High School, and Safiye Can from Turkey lived with Michele Stefanelli, Business manager for the Reflections Yearbook Staff.

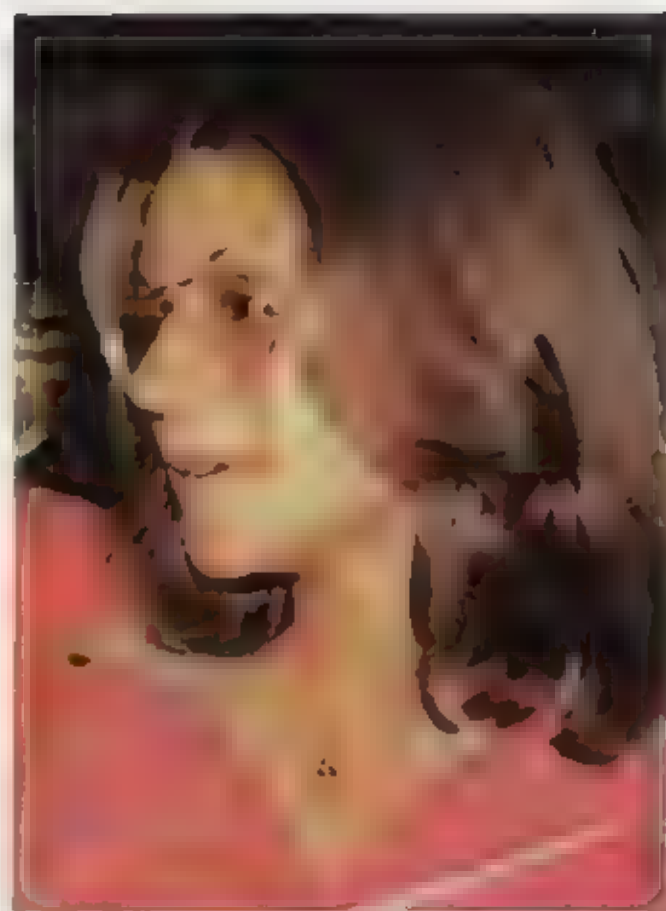

Picnics, square dances and seminars were some of the American Field Services activities and money making projects. Monthly meetings were held to help Orna and Safiye become acquainted with our language and customs. Mrs. Monica Mavec was designated Faculty Liason to help them with any problems that they may have had in school.

The Plantation chapter of AFS which includes Plantation High School and South Plantation, sent five seniors abroad last summer. Lori Larsen, who also served as Sorota president, went to Denmark, Mike Sloan who went to Belgium, and Rich Wyatt who went to Norway and worked on a farm for his American Field Service experience where as Lori Larsen and Mike Sloan stayed with their host families. They first flew to New York where they had a two day orientation and then to their host for a week-long inaguration camp.

In the past, the American Field Service chapter of Plantation has sent students only for the summer. Next year they plan to have a new program which is designed to send American students to foreign countries for a full academic year. Similar to the exchange program students experience here.

Meetings are held the third Thursday of every month at Diecke Auditorium. To host an exchange student or travel abroad, you must attend the meeting and be chosen through a series of interviews.

Seniors Getting Involved

Gwen Leibstone

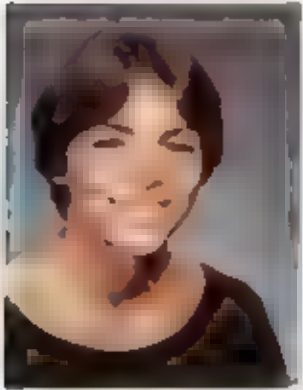

Joseph Leman

Becoming involved, according to Senior Class Sponsor, Mr. Ron Larder, could lead to a better Senior year. Seniors should assume more responsibilities as well as choose a career direction, he said.

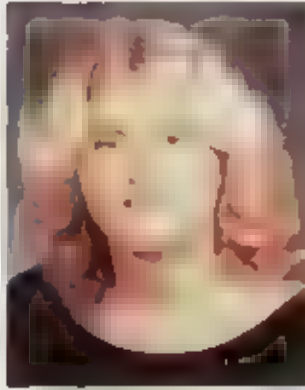

Six years ago, Mr. Michael Roland, activities director, asked Mr. Larder to be the Senior class sponsor because he taught Senior psychology classes. Since then, he has been asked by every Senior class to act as sponsor. He has become the traditional Senior class sponsor.

Mr. Larder has been teaching at Plantation High School for six years. He received his Bachelors degree from Wagner College in New York in 1956 and his Masters degree from Syracuse University, New York, in 1957.

Annual father/daughter banquet held

The second annual Senior Father/Daughter Banquet was held October 30 in the School cafeteria. Valerie Russell and Jennifer Dorsey, both Seniors, acted as chairpersons for the events.

In addition to the banquet, entertainment was provided. The Senior girls or their fathers were encouraged to audition for a variety show presented after the dinner. The talent auditions were held on October 16 and 23. Mrs. MacNamara, Chorus instructor, aided in the judging of talent.

The fee for the banquet was one dollar per couple which paid for a salad bar, cake, beverage and utensils. In addition to the dollar, a covered dish to feed four people was required.

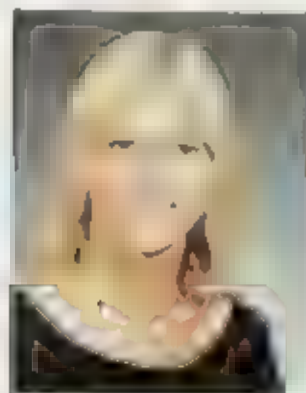

Senior girls wore school clothes to the occasion and fathers were asked to wear either leisure suits or a coat and tie.

Senior Portraits taken

During the summer and beginning of the school year, this years Seniors had their Senior portraits taken. Bryn Alan was the chosen photographer for this year as well as last year. Deadline for having these pictures taken was September 17th. After this date, all pictures taken were excluded from the yearbook.

Girls were given a choice of red, blue, green, or black drapes and guys were furnished with tuxedos. For the girls' pictures, various props were used. Among them, the most popular was a red or yellow rose placed over the shoulder, another was the picture silhouetted by a sideview.

Seniors had various choices of picture packages. All contained wallet sized portraits and some contained pictures measuring up to almost two x three feet.

Senior kazoo band; new music at plantation

The Plantation High School Junior/Senior Kazoo Band was one of the more unusual new activities this year.

The idea for the band came about when it became known that the Marching Colonels would be leaving at halftime during the October 13th game against Northeast to attend a band contest. Knowing that music is an important part of any football game, Matt Bertelsen jokingly suggested to Mr. Roland's 2nd hour Advanced American History class that all Seniors should bring kazoos to the game to fill the void.

The Senior turnout for the game was better than had even be anticipated, but the number of Juniors wanting to participate caused the officers to change the name to The Junior/Senior Kazoo Band.

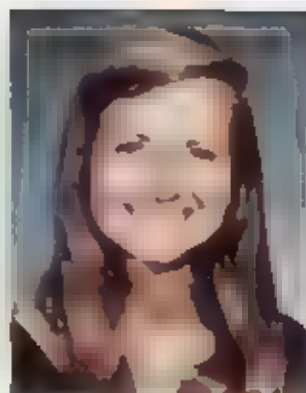

The officers this year include: Head Kazoo, Matt Bertelsen; 1st Vice Kazoo, Tom Strange; 2nd Vice Kazoo, Steve Miskew; Kazoo Secretary, David Stich; Kazoo Treasurer, David Eaton; Kazoo Parliamentarian, Leslie Dupree and Sergeant at kazoos Debbie Shank.

Senior Brian Bradley holds ball in place to be kicked by Robbie Crawford

Calendar includes Five seniors

The annual Calendar Girl Finals were held on October 25, 1978. Five senior girls were chosen to represent months in the 1978-1979 Sorota Calendar.

Planning to attend Broward Community College after graduation, Robin Jones was Chosen Miss February. Robin was born April 24, 1961, and just recently celebrated her eighteenth birthday. Miss Jones was a member of Anchor Club for two years and was a Guardian Angel. Also, Miss Jones was in the Plantation High School Drill Team. After attending two years of Junior college and two years at a university, Robin hopes to become an airline stewardess.

Miss June, Cheryl Rockey, has attended Plantation High School since her sophomore year. She first came to this school after leaving Winter Park, Florida. Cheryl was employed at the "Body Shop", in the Broward Mall, and is secretary of Distributive Education Clubs of America. As a Junior, Miss Rockey was a Varsity Cheerleader. This year, she was voted Best Dressed in Senior Superlatives and was also Anchor Treasurer in the Plantation volunteer Fire Department's Miss Flame contest. Miss Rockey finished as second runner-up.

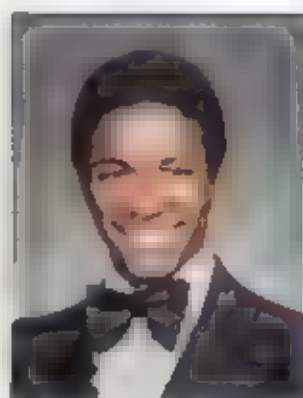

Chosen to represent the month of August was Pam Bell, who was the 1978-79 Senior Section Editor of the thirteenth edition of the Plantation High School Reflections yearbook.

Miss Bell was voted runner-up in the Senior Superlatives as "Most Likely To Succeed". Miss Bell has also been in Honor Society. In the fall, Pam is planning to attend the University of Florida to study Veterinary Medicine. Her ultimate goal is work in a large zoo and eventually becomes the staff veterinarian.

Kim Deddens, Miss September is an executive Board Member of Student Council. Besides being Secretary of Intramurals, Kim has been a member of Sorota for two years. Miss Deddens was also a Guardian Angel. In her future plans, Kim hopes to become involved in the field of Interior Design.

Lori Ortagus represented the month of December in the 1979 Calendar. Miss Ortagus was Travelaries president in the chorus department here at Plantation High School. Lori is a native Floridian being originally from Hollywood, Florida. As Miss Ortagus looks into her future, she plans to attend F.S.U. in the fall. She plans on majoring and making a career in music. Lori was also a Guardian Angel.

The girls were judged on poise, posture and all around beauty. The girls were chosen from 40 finalists which were chosen from 130 girls in preliminaries.

Juniors were eligible to take the PSAT exam this year. It was administered October 6 at PHS.

It is a college pre-entrance exam, given in preparation for the SAT test. It gives students an idea of what it is like to take a college entrance exam. Also the chance to have his or her name put on a college mailing list.

Congratulations Class of '79 Jewelcor

This year the Junior Class participated in many new activities

Class rings were ordered in October and expected back sometime in December. This was the first major activity including the Junior Class as a whole Juniors participated very actively in Homecoming. Besides helping with service club projects, in which many juniors participate, they decorated their own hall and performed a skit. This took a lot of organization and responsibility from everyone who participated, but the outcome was good the hall placed second out of seven halls decorated.

A new spirit contest was added to the Student activities this year. During football season each class received points at the end of each week. At the end of the season the points were added, the prize was $100.00, the Junior Class also received this

The Juniors sold candy bars at school this year as a money making project. They sold Snickers, Three Musketeers, and Milky Way bars. The sales continued for three weeks and proved to be a worthwhile project for the Junior Class.

A trip to Circus World was also planned. This was strictly a Junior activity. It was similar to Grad Night, only Juniors were allowed and it lasted all night

Eight On Calendar

This year once again Junior girls filled the calendar. For the second consecutive year Sorota Service Club sponsored Calendar Girl. They held signups for one week prior to preliminaries. A $1.00 fee was charged for all girls who registered.

Preliminaries were held Friday October 6 in the Cafeteria. The forty finalists were chosen. These girls returned October 21 to compete once again for the thirteen positions on the calendar. The thirteen girls were chosen eight of which were Juniors. The girls were judged on their smile, dress, poise, and total appearance.

The girls were pictured at the Inverary Golf Course in December, the Calendar was prepared by Sorota members and was scheduled to go on sale in January.

Miss Celise Combs, Junior Class vice-president, representing the month of January was escorted by David Hickimbotham.

Miss Donna Tomanio, Varsity Football Cheerleader, representing the month of April was escorted by Peter Scott.

Miss Karla Knight, Varsity Basketball Cheerleader, representing the month of May was escorted by her father Mr. Henry Knight.

Miss Sharon Shank, Varsity Football Trainer, representing the month of July was escorted by Steve Moury.

Miss Kathy Neeley, Drill Team Member, representing the month of October was escorted by her brother.

Miss Tina Reiners, Drill Team Member, representing the month of November was escorted by John Clement.

Miss JoAnna Clark, drill team member, representing the month of December was escorted by Doug Houser.

Miss Laura Siegal became Cover Girl and was escorted by Joby Flanigan.

Students must Pass Lit. test

This year, students were given the Functional Literacy test for the second time. It is a requirement of all Juniors and must be taken and passed in order to receive a diploma.

The test was administered on October 19th, a teachers work day. It was given at this time to make it easier and the students taking it there was more time and less interruptions.

Unlike last year, the students were given special instruction and practice tests in both Math and English to help prepare them for the tests.

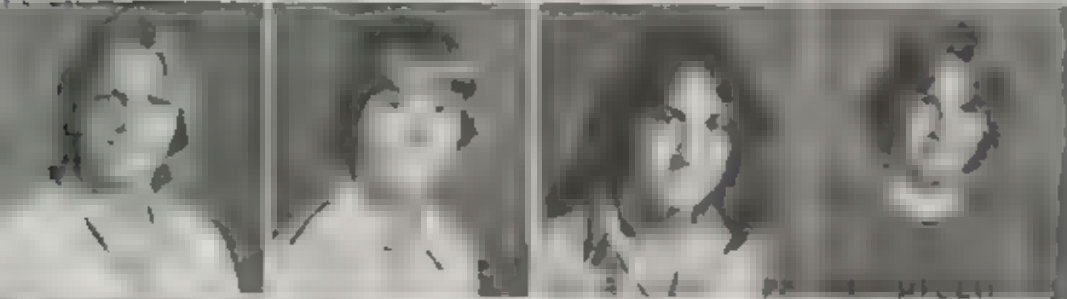

Results were expected back by students sometime in December. With the preparation, a greater number of students were expected to pass. But once again this year, classes were offered for the different sections of the tests that students did not pass.

Who's Who not encouraged

Who's Who in American High Schools was not greatly encouraged by the P.H.S. administration this year.

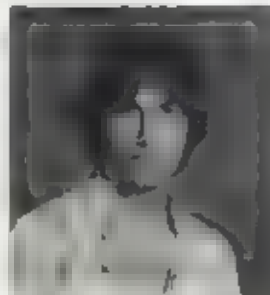

The Who's Who annual comes out containing students from all over the United States. It tells about student's outstanding achievements, student service activities, athletics and class activities of the top percentages of senior, high school classes. The annual is then sent to colleges and universities who desire its use.

To purchase the annual, a student is charged a nominal fee.

The administration felt that the only people benefiting from the annual were the people who were publishing it.

Although it was not widely publicized, students who wished to participate were permitted.

Pupils are active in AFS projects

Members of the P.H.S. student body participated in the American Field Service in many ways this year.

American Field Service is an international intercultural scholarship program which works world wide to help support the travel of people as a learning experience.

A.F.S. supports many different programs such as sending U.S. residents around to other states and abroad to other countries and accepting other students from abroad.

The Plantation chapter of A.F.S. is the southern most chapter in Florida and works with Plantation High School and South Plantation High jointly to make one of the few ventures these schools partake in together.

Other than students partaking in hosting Foreign Exchanges and going abroad many students also participated in the square dance, Christmas bazaar, and many other activities.

American Field Service holds its meetings every third Thursday of each month at Deike Auditorium.

Rings Ordered In October

Every year at the same time, the Juniors at Plantation High School, anxiously await the arrival of their class rings. The rings were ordered in October. The sale took place through Junior American History classes.

The prices of the rings varied as to the stone cut, ring style and also on individual shields for sports, clubs, and other organizations.

The rings arrived in the middle of December, just before students were dismissed for the Christmas holidays. Herff Jones was the company which was used by Plantation High School to fill the order for the Juniors

Seniors who failed to order their rings in their Junior year, were given the opportunity to order one with this years Juniors.

The rings carried a lifetime guarantee against any deformity other than loss

Changes abound on Juniors

Students take a step up to the upper level of high school. Along with the fun that comes with being a Junior in high school comes totally new experiences and many new responsibilities.

Being the Juniors at school changes a lot of things for a lot of people. You no longer part of the younger half of the school. You receive a lot of privileges, can participate in a lot more activities, and have a lot more fun. But along with all of this comes new responsibilities. The majority of Juniors will take on jobs, but along with working they will probably have harder classes, and a lot more things they want to participate in. There will be college entrance exams and a functional literacy test to be taken. With these and many more things people don't even think about, a person could be under a lot of pressure, but once past the pressure comes the satisfaction and that always seems to help.

Peoples values start to change, view points start to narrow or widen and most people find themselves confused and bewildered but it passes and you find yourself growing you start to understand other people and especially yourself a little better. Maybe you can understand why people do the things they do if not you may be able to accept it. Even your parents become more lenient then they once were. Your curfew gets later or maybe if your a little late they just might understand. A lot of things change and yet many stay the same there is always the constant to help you realize where your head is at.

The majority of your years is spent on growing, but most people never seem to realize it until they have already passed through it. There are big decisions to be made, should you go to college or go to work, what you want to do with the rest of your life. A lot of people probably do not even think about these things for you still have one more year in which you may decide whether or not to continue with school, but that time creeps up and soon that last step will arrive.

Juniors dominate varsity team

This year the Varsity Football team was dominated by juniors. Thirty juniors played on the team, and according to Coach Don Gatewood, all of them will return. Coach Gatewood said he will have a "great" team next year. Most of the opposing teams for next year will be losing the majority of their team due to graduating seniors. Gatewood also said the team will "definitely improve" for the upcoming season.

Coach Gatewood has three goals for next year. His first goal is to win the first game of the season, the Second to be "the best in the west," by beating South Plantation, Piper, Coral Springs, Coconut Creek and Dillard High, and the third for his team to be the district champs.

Along with Coach Gatewood, Mr. Chapman and Mr. Wallace offensive coaches, and Mr. Roland, defensive coach will return to lead Plantation High in their best season ever.

M. Stich, Ranks 2nd
'78 Cross Country.

Sophomore, Mark Stich ranked number two on the Varsity Cross Country Team. This was Mark's first year running, with his best time being 15:34.

Keeping up a 4.0 average working for an academic scholarship, Mark ran 50 miles a week during practice and on his own time.

Mark didn't like running. He wanted to play baseball, but he felt pressure from his brother, Dave Stich, #1 on the team. But Mark was satisfied with his #2 position on the team this year.

Mark's goal was to break the school record by the time he is a senior.

Basketball Cheerleaders

Maria Rich who likes to waterski, and play softball, also likes to jog. She someday plans to be a stewardess. Her favorite subject was biology

Sherill Smith also likes to play softball and rollerskate. She likes to ride horses and play soccer. Chemistry is a favorite class and sometimes likes to needlepoint in her spare time. Someday she would like to go to college

Janet Polisi enjoys dancing, swimming and sometimes to needlepoint in her spare time. Her favorite subject was biology, and she plans to become a stewardess

Each girl had to do three chants and one cheer, they also had to make-up one of their own cheers and do four jumps

The requirements were to have a 2.5 grade point average and to attend the after school games and practices

The sponsor this year was Barbara Barker.

Freshman girl Officers

Many responsibilities

Freshmen have many more responsibilities when they enter high school than they had as middle school students. The transition from a middle school to a high school atmosphere is often a difficult one. They are faced with harder classes, more homework, and the hardships of being freshmen.

There is much more competition in all aspects of high school life, as students come up against others from various backgrounds. They can no longer be as carefree as they were in middle school, but must settle down and look toward the future. The four years a student spends in high school go by quickly, and before one knows it, college life or a career begins.

Some of the duties of the ninth grade officers were to help promote the class, arrange class meetings, attend student council meetings, and make decisions on class activities.

Also a representative of the class, being one of the officers, had to attend the IOC meetings held every-other Monday night prior to the club meetings.

Freshman Roam The Halls

Freshmen roamed the halls in confusion during the first few weeks of school. Each freshman was given a hand map to help them to their classrooms. Sophomores, juniors, and seniors aided them by giving them directions. The ninth graders trusted them until they found themselves wandering into the wrong classroom. With a map in one hand and a schedule in the other, the freshmen decided it would be better to make their own decisions.

After a few weeks, the ninth graders memorized both their maps, and were able to find their classrooms unescorted.

This is the image of you, as seen through the eyes of a blind man.
He judges you, not on the color of your skin or the features of your face, but on what you say and what you do.

REMEMBER ME

The day will come when my body will be in a bed in a hospital busily occupied with the living and the dying. At a certain moment a doctor will determine that my brain has ceased to function, and for all intents and purposes, my life on earth has stopped. When that day happens, don't call it my death bed - let it be by "bed of life" and let my body help others to live a fuller life

Give my sight to the man who has never seen a sunrise, a baby's face, or the love in the eyes of a man or a woman. Give my heart to one whose heart has been the source of endless pain. Give my blood to a teenager pulled from the wreckage of his car so he may one day see his grandchildren at play. Take my bones, every fiber and nerve, and find a way to make a crippled child walk. Explore every corner of my brain, take the cells, if necessary, and let them grow so that, someday, a speechless boy will shout at the crack of a bat and a deaf girl will hear the sound of rain against her window

If you must bury something, let it be my faults, my weaknesses, and all prejudice against my fellowman. If, by chance, you wish to remember me, pray for me and better yet, do it with a kind word or deed to someone who need you. And, don't worry about me. I will live forever

Dear Sony (celise too)

I just want to say what a very special person you are. For two years I went to PHS just checking you out. I can't say how glad I am that the 3rd year we became friends. I love hearing those intimate thoughts on m.l., & I'm glad you put up with my problems. We both know we can always work things out. I see always said that you're very much like what I admire in a girl (All these compliments, I better be careful) Seriously, there isn't really anything else to say, but nice things I just remembered a bad one.

Best of Luck

why didn't

I'd really like to talk with you (that's out of school), but I re how busy we both to the number. Will you check out these straight lines I've Led all I could do was write crooked and slanted lines. is only slightly deserved, Thanks Emma L. T

To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under heaven

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant and a time to pluck up that which is planted,

A time to kill, and a time to heal, a time to break down, and a time to build up,

A time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together, a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing,

A time to win, and a time to lose, a time to keep, and a time to cast away,

A time to rend and a time to sew, a time to keep silence, and a time to speak,

A time to love, and a time to hate, a time of war, and a time and a time of peace.

STEVE ENGLUND

The credit for all the art work put into this page goes to Steve. Thanks so much for all the time and hard work put into making this page such a success

TAMMY DECARLO

As Reflections Editor in-Chief she put much time and energy into this book. She dedicated herself not only to the production of the book but also the many people who worked on it. Without her the book would not have been a success

KAREN HABEL

Although she was not on the staff this year she gave much of her time and put in a lot of effort to make sure the yearbook receipts were done on time

STACEY O'HARE

Of all the people on the staff Stacey has worked the hardest. Not only did she do the underclassman section and edited the record but she did more. she held the yearbook editor together. If not for Stacey so many things would not have been accomplished. So I want to give her, above all people a very special and personal thank you

Tammy DeCarlo

JULIE ALLEN

Julie, another person not on this year's staff, deserves a special thanks for taking time out of her schedule to, painfully, type all the copy that went into the freshman section

ANGELA GALANTE

Thanks to Angela for all the work she put in to both the senior section and the sports section. She has done more than her share

SUZANNE WHEELER

A very Special Thanks should go to Suzanne for all the work she put into the Senior section and the sports section. They would not be the same if not for her

JANET HANCE

A thank you is in order for Janet. She contributed much of her time and patience to the Clubs section.

TODD YOUNG

Although Todd didn't start off as a photographer he ended this year with being a very valuable one.

STONEY LUBINS

Thanks to Stoney for the numerous amounts of pictures he took for the yearbook

KAREN ZIZZMER

Karen deserves a big thank you for all the time she dedicated to the staff. Some Contributions she made to the book are the work done in the sports section, and the numerous pictures she took for the staff

CHRIS PALASAK SARKO

There are no words to describe the amount of work Chris put into the picture editing and in the general make-up of the book. We never could have done it without her.

Celise,

We've had a lot of good times this year and like all good friends do we've had some bad, c/f we can keep talking to each other maybe there will be ~~less~~ less bad times. I know I hope that there are more good times in the future. I still think that you can play softball better than you say you can. Good luck with Student Council next year. ^{have} You that I'll help any way I can. c/f you ever don't have anything to do over the summer give me a call. (Hint.Hint)

Love,
Ken

Celise,

You are gonna have so much fun next year. Your senior year is so special. I hope we get to be better friends cuz we really don't know each other now. Have a great summer.

Love,
Jiang

Celise,

Hey sweetie, I'm really glad that I got to know you this year, also that you were in my Spanish class. I really enjoyed that movie in Miss Hope's class that day. I don't have much to say except that you're really sweet and a good friend of mine.

Oh by the way has Mr. "Stud" Burgess Bothered you lately. I hope not because he is a pain in the ass. He still gets annoyed when I put my arm around you in the hall during lunch. He's such a QUEER BAIT!!!!!! Well the Bell's going to ring. Hope we can get together sometime.

Love Always,

Lito.
